

Maia Iotzova - Filmography

Green Dream (2015), 50 min., author documentary contemplating nature's place within the city. Distributor: V-tape

Grass Through Concrete (2005), 72 min., a documentary film capturing the fight of a community to protect a large urban park in Hamilton, Canada from the construction of an expressway. Distributor: V-tape

Adaptive Tracks (2005), 6 min., documentary about skiers with physical disabilities.

Femmes Phénoménales (2013), 5min., documentary video of the creative process of the yarn bombing collective Les Ville-Laines for Festival Phénoména.

Lela (2013), 3 min., a music video for the band Briga.

Les 5 dernières minutes (2011), 5 min, a short fiction film.

Love is...(2011), 4 min., video art.

Maia (2010),1 min., paper cut out stop motion animation about the history of the name Maia/Maya, a collaboration with Ricky-Lea Owens.

Kalavera Delisiosa (2009), participated in the creation of a video chain of 30-second clips.